

Area Chaplain

What is a Sea Cadet Chaplain For?

We exist to Serve the Sea Cadet Corps by Nurturing People, Giving Teaching and Leading Spiritually.

Serving through Nurturing People

- Knowing the Key Leaders of the Area
- Helping the Leaders of the Area cope with the 'loneliness of leadership'
- Recruiting and Swearing in New District Chaplains
- Supporting and Developing District Chaplains
- Processing the admin of new Unit Chaplains

Serving through Giving Teaching

- Helping Unit and District Chaplains in their teaching role
- Maintaining the Chaplains web resource
- Teaching and contributing to the Chaplains Initial and Continuation courses
- Contributing to the new COs course

Serving through Leading Spiritually

- Praying for the Area and its District and Unit Chaplains
- Representing the Chaplaincy at Area events and SMT
- Conducting occasional external services
- Leading the Chaplaincy Theologically

We are part of the Sea Cadet Corps and so we:

- Take an active part in the wider chaplaincy team
- Try to understand and Incarnate the Navy ethos
