

Unit Chaplain

What is a Sea Cadet Chaplain For?

We exist to Serve the Sea Cadet Corps by Nurturing People, Giving Teaching and Leading Spiritually.

Serving through Nurturing People

- Knowing the Cadets and Staff of the Unit
- Helping the Senior Leaders of the Unit
- Being available to all - a 'friend and advisor' to all

Serving through Giving Teaching

- Teaching or enabling the Core Values teaching
- Teaching other lessons we can (e.g. Map Reading)

Serving through Leading Spiritually

- Praying for the Unit
- Taking prayers when at the Unit at Colours
- Conducting occasional external services
- Developing good links with local church and community

We are part of the Sea Cadet Corps and so we:

- Take an active part in the wider chaplaincy team
- Try to understand and Incarnate the Navy ethos

Available Support

All Unit Chaplains are Supported by their district Chaplain

The Chaplains Web Resource : a one stop shop for ideas and information

Training : Initial 4 day (inside week) Chaplains Course and every few years the Chaplaincy Continuation Training Course

Usual Time Commitment:

Monthly : One or More visits to your unit for a training evening

Yearly : Occasional District/Area Day Conferences and training